✦ German Christmas Weekends at The Wireless-Free Farm

– A Truly Festive Escape 🌲 ✦

Do you love German Christmas markets — but can't make it to Germany this year?

Let Iris, an accomplished accordionist from Germany, bring the magic to you. Enjoy a private, authentic experience with live Christmas carols in The Hide Out, surrounded by handmade decorations, warm candlelight, and festive treats including Lebkuchen and Glühwein.

A truly special experience for anyone who loves the atmosphere of a traditional Christkindl Market.

🌲 A Different Kind of Christmas

This festive season, step away from screens, shopping centres, and constant notifications — and rediscover the simple joys of Christmas.

For four exclusive weekends only

📅 From Friday 27 November to Friday 18 December 2026

Arrive Friday from 4pm and stay until Sunday 6pm

At The Wireless-Free Farm near Lake Vyrnwy, you'll find something increasingly rare: time, space, and true presence.

No Wi-Fi across the farm — just nature, animals, and meaningful connection

The Experience

Our 17.5-acre retreat near Lake Vyrnwy offers the rare gift of time and presence. There's no Wi-Fi here — just fields, animals, and human connection. Let us introduce you to our bit of 'Heaven on Earth'. Share quiet moments with our sheep & horses and curl up with a hot drink by the fire in 'the Snug'. Every detail is created to help you switch off, slow down and find balance.

Wireless note:

Wireless devices may be used in the accommodation and guest car park. The rest of the farm is wireless-free.

For a full digital detox, guests are encouraged to leave devices switched off in their cars.

Mindfulness with Horses and Sheep

Our small herd of therapy horses and ponies are gentle and calm and always welcoming to visitors.

Our sheep 'The Bryn Y Garreg Longtail's are known for their gentle, curious nature and often seek human interaction if approached with gentleness and calm. Let their peaceful energy ground and soothe you. Being in their presence invites you to:

- slow down
- be present
- reconnect with calm

Indoor space available in poor weather.
(Please bring warm clothing and suitable footwear.)

We can't recommend this stay highly enough!

We usually find it hard to get into a Christmas frame of mind until the day itself arrives — and then it's all over far too quickly. But here, something felt different. The beautifully decorated, cosy Hide Out and the heartfelt music presented by Iris created a warm, festive atmosphere that allowed us to truly slow down, breathe, and reconnect with each other.

The gentle magic of Christmas came alive for us — not in a rushed or overwhelming way, but in a calm, meaningful way that stayed with us well beyond the season.

Spending time with the sheep and horses was incredibly special. There's something about being with them that brings you back to yourself. It added a depth to the weekend that we hadn't expected, making it feel even more magical and memorable.
